SISTERHOODS OF MERCY. hoods, in connection with its own branch of the Church, has been formed in Cincionati. They have published a book too, in which they agree "to submit themselves to the following rules, and such others as may be added for their governance by him to whom they owe obedience as the pastor set over them in the Lord; desiring that obedience to authority, diligence in duty and punctuality in its perfermance, shall specially mark their conduct." And here are the rules:

This Association shall be called the Sisterhood of Mercy—ourselves the Sisters of the missioner of the Revenue, at the election in May next.

P. C. CLAUGHTON. same family; and our Father-our Pastor in Christ.

Claiming the promise of Christ to united prayer, we agree that wherever we are, and whatsoever be our employments, we will daily, at the hour of 12 o'clock at noon, unite in prayer with our Spiritual Father, in a formula to be by him prescribed.

We agree to unite in a morning and evening prayer, daily at such hour as may be convenient-each Sister alone, by berself, following the prescribed formula.

We agree to pray daily at such successive hours as shall be assigned to us, individually, wheresoever we may be and whatsoever may be our employment-saying the same words: and these hours shall be five in number, viz:

6 A. M. morning. 9 A. M. Jesus condemned. 12 M. Jesus on the cross. 3 P. M. Jesus died.

6 P. M. Jesus buried. 9 P. M. evening. We agree, that we will (if practicable) devote time at each successive hour of prayer assigned, to devout meditations upon such topics as shall belong to the day, taking our direction in the matter from our Father in Christ or by agreement among ourselves.

On the Friday preceding the Holy Commupion, as regularly administered at 3 o'clock. P. M., we will assemble at some appointed in charge, for his direction, counsel and blessing.

The Lord's Day is expressly excepted from any Hours of Prayer, since the whole day is holy time.

We agree to observe strictly and conscientiously all the Feasts and Fasts enjoined by the Church; and to employ ourselves in such deeds of mercy and love, as would naturally result from any special consecration of ourselves to the service of the Blessed Redeemer. Signed on this Feast of Saint Andrew, Nov. 30, A. D., 1857, in the city of Cincinnati, and under the protection of Almighty God, looking devoutly to Him for His bless-

And to all these are added certain formulas of devotion for daily use, and also formulas of "An Act of Submission," "An Act of Penitence," "An Act of Charity and Mercy," and certain "Topics of Thought," for every day in the week.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY. CLIMATE. - Since my arrival here, on the 9th of September, the weather has been delightful, with the exception of a tew days' rain, indicating the approach of the rainy season. My information from the old residents of the country is that throughout the winter months stock subsists almost entirely by grazing. Working cattle, of course, require feeding. When the rains begin to fall the grass springs anew, thus affording fice of Superintendent of Police. good winter range. I have reliable authority for stating that so exceedingly mild is the climate that the farmer is seldom prevented, on account of frost, from ploughing office of Superintendent of Police. Should it his ground and sowing the winter grain as late as the middle of December. Much of the winter wheat is sown in the two first as possible, satisfy the just demands of an already weeks of February; the sowing of spring oppressed tax paying community. grain is usually commenced in this month and continued until May. HEALTH OF THE COUNTRY -It seems to be a conceded fact that this northwest coast is date for Superintendent of Police, at the ensuthe most healthy portion of the North American continent. It is said by those who have resided here for years that most of the deaths occuring among the white settlers in the Puget Sound country since its settlement by Americans, have been the result of accident, or from diseases contracted before coming to the country, such as consumption, chronic affections, &c. AGRICULTURE .- Western Washington is, on the whole, well adapted to agriculture, nearly one-third being prairie, much of which is excellent land for tillage, as well as grazing. The soil of the timber districts is mostly good, either clay or sand loam, and the land along the rivers and bayous very productive. Farming can be made profitable here when the price of labor is reduced by immigration. What is most needed here now is more people to develope the resources of the country. Farmers, mechan ics, lumbermen, and fishermen will find ample field for their enterprise. Wages rule high, the common laborer receiving $2,50 to $3 per day, and female labor, when it can be had, commanding from $30 to $40 per mouth. The price of washing is $2 to $3 per dozen .- Gov. McMullin's Letter.
